THE PROPOSED MT. VERNON AVENUE.—
"M. Vernon avenue" will be one of the love est drives, and will open up one of the Flour, fine leveliest sections of country in all the universe. This avenue will extend from the Aqueduct bridge to Mt. Vernon, and the meny far sighted gentlemen who have originated the scheme believe that it will be oninsted the scheme believe that it will be ob-ly a question of a few months after the road is epened before the jingle of the atrect car betts will be heard—and heard over that very road. Every Washingtonian who has given the matter any attention whatever believes that if the road is finally opened it will make the city fairly boom with busi-

"It is the biggest scheme out," said Mr. Frank Hume, "and every one who has the leat particle of business sense will say so too. If Mt. Vernon avenue is opened there will be hundreds of little truck farms developed in and around that avenue that will be of lasting advantage to this city."

"Of course I am in favor of cutting an avenue from the Aqueduct bridge to Mt. Vernou," said Mr. D. A. Windsor, "You may call it what you please, but the Republican's suggestion that the new avenue be named Mt. Vernou is a good one, and I indorse it. if such an avenue is built you can depend upon it that it will be a big thing for Wash-

Dr. Harold Snowden, of the Alexandria Gazette, said: "If Mt. Vernon avenue is opened, Alexandria, Washington and all the country between the two cities named will prefit by it. MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL

There has been no special feature to note finanially or commercially, during the week. There every little speculative feeling, and as a rule crices are lower. Money is quoted steady and quiet, with a good supply, but only obtainable on st collaterals. U. S. bonds are quoted weaker. Virginia consols sold yesterlay at 48%, an adance of 4s, and the 10-40s sold at 35, a decline of 1 per cent, on the bid of the day previous. Pastlue tax coupons fundable at 50 per cent. were quoted 32 bid, and non-fundable at 29 bid. Railroad securities are very quiet. We quote: Virginia Midland 1st 120; 2ds 1174a118; 3ds 111 %; 4ths 68; 5ths 104 %.

NEW YORK, August 26.-The stock market opened active and strong this morning at advances over yesterday's final figures of from 1/8 to 1/2 per cent, generally, and further fractional advances were made in the early dealings. The strength, however, soon disappeared, when the market become more quiet and part of the early gains were lost. After a slight rally prices again vielded and Richmond and West Point dropped 25, per cent, most of the list being carried below first prices. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly act ve and weak Money easy at 4a5.
